New norms to be set by WTO on anti-dumping duties

2980. SHRIMATI N.P. DURGA: Will the Minister of COMMERCE AND INDUSTRY be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that in the forthcoming WTO negotiations, WTO is going to set new norms on anti-dumping duties;

(b) if so, whether the new norms will whittle duty protection that is available to India on anti-dumping duties;

(c) how Government is going to deal with it in the WTO Conference;

(d) whether any strategy has been prepared for this purpose; and

(e) if so, the details thereof?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF COMMERCE AND INDUSTRY (SHRI E.V.K.S. ELANGOVAN): (a) and (d) Negotiations have been undergoing since November 2001 under the Doha Work Programme, including in the area of WTO Rules inter alia aimed at clarifying and improving disciplines under the Agreement on Implementation of Article VI of the GATT 1994 (commonly known as Anti-Dumping Agreement), while preserving the basic concepts, principles and effectiveness of this Agreement and its instruments and objectives, and taking into account the needs of developing and least-developed participants.

The negotiations are being undertaken in the Negotiating Group on Rules set up by the Trade Negotiations Committee in 2002 and are aimed at clarifying and improving disciplines under the Anti-dumping Agreement. Negotiations are still ongoing.

(c) to (e) In the initial phase of the negotiations, participants indicated provisions, including disciplines on trade distorting practices, that they seek to clarify and improve in the subsequent phase. Many WTO members have submitted formal proposals seeking clarification and/or improving disciplines on different aspects of anti-dumping agreement in the Negotiating Group on Rules. However, a full clarity on possible outcome has yet to emerge. Our negotiating objectives and strategies have been developed based on analytical work and a process of dialogue with relevant stakeholders. India is actively engaged in the negotiations and in this regard has also submitted certain proposals to the Negotiating Group on Rules on different aspects of the Anti-Dumping Agreement. As negotiations intensify in the run up to next WTO Ministerial Conference in December 2005, India will remain actively engaged in these negotiations to ensure that its interests and concerns continue to be adequately addressed as negotiations proceed from one stage to the next. India seeks a balanced outcome in the Rules negotiations in line with the Doha mandate.

Auto component exports

2981. SHRI K. RAMA MOHANA RAO: Will the Minister of COMMERCE AND INDUSTRY be pleased to state:

(a) of the global auto component industry, which is likely to grow to about US $1.91 trillion by 2015, how India is going to contribute its exports to this;
